Kids Day Celebration Kicks Off This Saturday

Bill Ayers Calls For Prompt Action In Cleaver Appointment

Bill Ayers, Republican candidate for Assembly in the 77th District, has called for action to prevent the hiring of Eldridge Cleaver by the University of California at Berkeley.

Cleaver is presently Minister of Information for the Black Panthers and the presidential candidate of the Peace and Freedom Party.

"There are a number of reasons why I object to the hiring of this man," stated Ayers. "To begin with, he was convicted of both rape and assault with intent to commit murder.

"Cleaver has been hired to teach at the University in the position of guest lecturer for a course in race relations. He does not have either a Ph.D. or a Master's Degree," said Ayers.

Ayers referred to the Sept. 16 issue of "Newsweek" magazine in which Cleaver was quoted as saying, "We (Negroes) can go nowhere unless we have the right to defend ourselves against the pig cop."

Cleaver, in an address to a group of San Francisco lawyers also stated, "I hope you'll take your guns and shoot judges and police."

Since Cleaver will be teaching a course in race relations, I question if his lectures will include his position that the answer to the Negro's problems was to , 'Kill some white people or make them act in a prescribed manner.'

"Cleaver has been on record as saying this to the meeting of San Francisco lawyers, according to "Newsweek", said Ayers.

"We must improve race relations, and Cleaver's rascist attitudes will only hurt the fine work being done by millions of Negroes and whites, alike," continued Ayers.

"I am appalled to hear that the University has hired Cleaver. But, bills that have been introduced to prevent the hiring of men like this met with failure.

"When elected I will fight the hiring of criminals and perverts like Cleaver," concluded Ayers.

Keep Cleaver Off Campus

Eldridge Cleaver.

He is the Peace and Freedom Presidential candidate.

He has a criminal record which includes a rape rap.

He is one of the top officials with the Black Panthers.

His aim in life. Kill white people.

Black Panther leader Eldridge Cleaver, outraged because nine of his ten planned lectures at Berkeley were cancelled, charged that "academic freedom, freedom of speech and the educational processes in California" were in a state of defeat."

Eldridge, awaiting trial on a charge of felonious assault resulting from a shooting incident between Oakland police and Black Panthers, already possesses a criminal record. He is also an advocate for the Marxist Communist line and pushes the idea of "death to white."

University of California regents argued with Gov. Reagan that Cleaver should be extended the courtesy of appearing on the campus for ten speeches. So did Prof. Robley Williams, chairman of the Statewide Academic Senate. He said that a specific ban on Cleaver "would be interpreted by members of the Senate as rescinding their delegated rights over curriculum."

Somebody should rescind these rights. Between so many professors showing their predilection for making certain that students get a full charge of communism from the highest communists leaders, and now, their fight for one of the most un-academic "lecturers" of all — Eldridge Cleaver — the supporters of colleges are questioning whether many of these professors have any brains at all.

Grossmont Junior College, until last year a wellspring for invitations to Communist lecturers, is surprisingly quiet so far this year. A couple of professors who espoused the open-door philosophy for spokesmen for enemy ideologies, have taken leave. That alone improved Grossmont College.

But bigger colleges allow strong leadership from those who would give campus dignity and prestige to those who do not deserve it.

Berkeley faculty apparently is no more disturbed by Cleaver's scheduled appearance than those at UCSD are by the employment of Dr. Herbert Marcuse, who supports the cause of Marxist Communism.

In the case of Cleaver, a criminal, convicted of rape and facing prison due to the Oakland Police shootout, it makes mockery of the question that faces the honest citizens who applies for a situation with the state or federal government: "Have you ever been convicted?"

This also makes Cleaver's presence an insult to every serious person with a sincere interest in the public educational system.

Even the college pranks of yesteryear, such as goldfish swallowing, is acceptable, by comparison because it was the student's stomach which received the wriggly creatures. But they're foisting these no-goodniks on us and giving them use of our expensive facilities while most of us struggle harder each year to meet the tax demands made upon us as a result of the growing educational system.

The review of this material is just to set the stage for reporting what other leaders say about the Cleaver matter. It is hoped that those who have not come to grips with this situation will grab hold of it and become as incensed as they properly should.

Gov. Reagan: "it makes as much sense as inviting Tommy Manville as a marriage counselor."

Assemblyman John Stull: "There is neither moral right nor intellectual excuse for spending money of California taxpayers in this manner. It is a slap in the face of every taxpayer in the State."

Assesmblyman Wadie Deddeh: "(Cleaver's) . . . extremism

Citizens' Committee Starts Work

Hospital Bond Issue Opens

The Citizens' Committee for the Grossmont Hospital Bond has started its job of acquainting the voters with the need for expanded facilities.

Pink Ladies on voluntary duty, who have observed the problem for themselves, have volunteered in great numbers to work beyond their usual assignment, for the Citizens' Committee in their La Mesa headquarters.

During this week, 60,000 fact sheets will be distributed to patients in the district.

Leverett F. Bristol, Hospital Administrator, revealed at a small unit meeting in Pine Valley, that the emergency room staff still in the same quarters as they were six years ago, now handles three times the number of cases. In July, 1,520 people were cared for.

The operating room staff extended its work week in early 1967, but elective surgery cases must wait 6 to 8 weeks for reservations. Twice the number of operations are scheduled today as in 1962.

In the laboratory, a stepladder is an accepted part of the furniture. Shelves are stacked high with working materials. Since the lab could not expand along the usual horizontal lines, technicians have been filling all the vertical space.

Twice as many tests are made and reports filed today as 6 years ago.

It is not unusual to see ambulatory patients and less active ones on gurneys lined up in the x-ray waiting room and flowing out into the corridor on the first floor waiting their turn. Here, too the patients have doubled.

Surgery Doubled

Passage of the bond on Nov. 5 would mean expansion of these facilities, doubling the surgeries, the lab, and x-ray departments.

Patients could be processed more quickly and certainly more efficiently. Anxiety as well as pain would be relieved earlier.

The new emergency room has been designed as a unit with its own x-ray and operating room. Out-patients requiring regular scheduled transfusions would be in an area apart from regulation emergency cases.

The dietary department, set up to serve the original 105 bed hospital, now feeds more than 200 patients daily plus a much-enlarged staff.

Space limitation has required short term purchasing for lack of adequate storage. Space for this department would not be doubled.

More advanced ways of preparing food have cut down some of the need, but employees there too, are too crowded.

Unanimous Opinion

Of the $6 million requested by the Directors, about $4 million would go to adding 156 beds and equipping the rooms. $2 million would provide for expansion of the services and remodelling present quarters to handle emerging needs.

The five Directors are unanimous in their opinion that passage of the Bond on Nov. 5th is necessary. It will be

Hospital Authorities Visit Grove Facility

A sizeable delegation of visiting residential care facility administrators who had travelled to San Diego for an all-day meeting, were drawn to Lemon Grove to see the Monte Vista Retirement Lodge.

They were greeted by Supervisor Robert C. Dent of the 3rd District who was invited to the Lodge by Robert D. Beasley, its director.

The meeting, attended by 105 delegates, was headquartered at Atlantis Restaurant in Mission Bay Aquatic Park. Eleven delegates made the side trip to Monte Vista Retirement Lodge late Friday afternoon.

State Senator Clair Burgener addressed the meeting by special telephone circuit from Sacramento, where he was detained pending final vote on the San Francisco Rapid Transit System deficit financing issue. He had intended to address the group in person.

Supervisor Dent had hoped also to see Mrs. John Faddis at Monte Vista, widow of his late friend and a former supervisor from the 3rd District. But Mrs. Faddis was out of the city.

"I find many of my old friends here," Dent said, "and I am tremendously impressed with the warm and homey atmosphere and the fine facilities which make them so comfortable here."

Bigger Override Tax Needed To Avert Strife--Sellery

"We can't live with a $1.50 tax override ceiling — and reverting to the 85c limit would wreck us," Dr. Austin Sellery told a luncheon group Monday. "We need $2.98 over the five year period to properly operate and to avert strife in the District."

Dr. Sellery, superintendent of the Grossmont Union High School District gave four reasons for the need for passing the issue at the Nov. 5 election.

First, the five-year-old $1.50 override ceiling expires in June. Without voter approval, the ceiling would drop to the Legislative mandated 85c for each $100 of assessed valuation.

"Our Board of Trustees has been extremely conservative. In Grossmont, the cost per student is $142 less than the State average," he said.

Another problem is inflation. "This is increasing at a rate of 5% a year. This added cost comes directly out of the money provided by the override," he said.

"Then there is the student population growth averaging 5%. The cost of providing instruction and supplies to 538 more students this year comes from this fund, too," he said.

Increasing the tax limit from $1.50 to $2.98 will produce about $830.000 more next year when a fifth of the full amount will be levied. We are required by law to budget at least 50% of this amount on salaries for teachers", he said.

Presently, teachers' salaries represent 53% of the operation for budget.

He said teachers are becoming restive because funds have not been supplied for better

Proposition 9 Is Cruel Hoax Say Trustees

Attorney Robert Sjogren, president of the Lemon Grove School Board, announced that the organization has gone on record in opposition to Proposition 9, the Watson Tax Trap Initiative, on the Nov. 5 ballot.

"Proposition 9 would cause untold havoc to the public schools in every community in California, " Sjogren said. "Every city, county and special service district in the State would also be plunged into unimaginable economic confusion.

"The Watson Initiative is a cruel hoax in that it would harm the very class of taxpayer it is puported to help. Proposition 9 drastically cuts property tax revenues, but the replacement tax revenues necessary to keep schools and local government services in operation would more than offset property tax savings to individual homeowners.

"In their own best interests, and to save California from educational, governmental and economic chaos, the Lemon Grove School Board urges all California citizens to vote "NO" on Proposition 9."

Grossmont JC Jazz Program To Feature Cal Tjader Saturday

Grossmont College will present Monterey Jazz Festival Stars Cal Tjader, Vince Guaraldi, and Jimmy Rushing in a special performance at 8 p.m., Saturday, Sept. 28, in the college gymnasium.

Cal Tjader was born in St. Louis but at an early age moved to California with his parents, both veteran troupers. While in high school he formed his own band. In 1948, after three years in the U.S. Navy, and while an undergraduate at San Francisco State College, he played drums and bongos with the Dave Brubeck Trio.

Later Tjader's talents were directed towards the vibraphone as his major instrument and in 1953 he joined the George Shearing Quintet in its rise to popularity.

Tjader today maintains and enjoys status as the leader of a continuing jazz group of top artists.

His performances now reach countless people via night clubs, concert halls, college campuses, jazz festivals, network TV shows, fiom scores, and recordings.

Vince Guaraldi, a pianist who is currently leading his own trio, is one of a few jazz musicians who have experienced the sensation of having one of his own jazz compositions become a national hit.

Guaraldi, who has played with Woody Herman, June Christy, Cal Tjader, The Lighthouse All-Stars, and other groups, wrote a tune several years ago called "Cast Your Fate to the Wind."

It took him five years to get it released as a single record. Once issued it crept up the best-seller charts slowly, but once it got on the charts, it stayed there for 22 weeks and was the first hit in the 13-year history of Fantasy Records.

"Cast Your Fate to the Winds" won a Grammy Award as "Best Jazz Instrumental for 1962", from the National Academy of Recording Arts and Sciences.

Rounding out the Grossmont College Jazz Festival Trio will be veteran Blues Singer Jimmy Rushing. Jimmy confesses he has been singing the Blues for 37 years and says he hopes to sing them for 37 more years. Jimmy has performed with such jazz immortals as Count Basie and Woody Herman.

Presented with the cooperation of the Monterey Jazz Festival producers, tentitive plans call for making the Grossmont College Jazz Festival an annual event. Tickets at $3 and $2 are available at all Highlander Mens' Stores and Metro Ticket Agencies in San Diego County.

College Registration Can Be Quite A Frustrating Process

On the right Miss Demaree is shown as she is told by English instructor Mrs. Leona Finalle that the class she wanted is closed and that she must rearrange her schedule in order to enroll in another class. In the photo on the left, Miss Demaree is shown as she checks the board with available classes still open so that she may select what is needed to fill her schedule out.

Miss Demaree, a 1967 Mt. Miguel High School graduate, was able to complete her registration process in less than one half hour, even with the difficulties that she had.

Fire Protection Network Gets Board of Supervisors Approval

SAN DIEGO (CNA) — Purchase of common radio equipment for a countrywide fire protection network was approved on Monday by the board of supervisors providing a majority of the cities and fire districts will sign an agreement to purchase their own equipment.

The estimated cost to the county is $94,000, but this may be spread over several years.

County Counsel Bertram McLees was directed to work with the fire chiefs association to draft an ordinance for a master mutual aid agreement and operation plan to include all fire departments.

County engineer David K. Speer was directed to survey all of the departments that enter the agreements to see what their individual needs are.

Association President Clarence L. Gish, Imperial Beach Fire Department chief, told the board the districts and cities must have this information before they can go to their boards or council with a dollars and cents proposal.

The survey will be taken by the Motorola Corporation, but the corporation will be repaid some $12,000 in the event some other company wins the sales contract from the county.

Speer said the company acts as the radio engineer for the county.

The new equipment will be a new carrier wave on existing county radio equipment and control of the system will rest with the districts from the La Mesa fire station.

The only departments which have indicated their desire not to participate are City of Vista, Coronado and Alpine, although no response was received from Oceanside, Del Mar, Borrego Springs, Crest, Pine Valley and Grossmont-Mt. Helix.

Speer said Oceanside is expected to join the countywide effort. Speer and Gish said no proposals have been received from any other radio equipment company although there appeared to be sufficient.

Board members indicated they want to make sure the individual departments will install equipment before the county spends its money.

Florida's new orange crop will be smaller than last year's by 47-million boxes, the Department of Agriculture estimates. Higher prices are expected.

This increase is in line with the higher quotas for all San Diego county communities, and the $1 million up from last year with the 1968 San Diego countywide goal of $5,496,671", he said.

Local division chairmen and the quotas assigned to them are: Alex Woods (branch manager Lemon Grove Bank of America) business division. $2,900 quota.

Learn Spanish the Easy Way

Hardison's Telespanish

by James Hardison

What are some of the Spanish proverbs? Do they have the same meaning in English? Proverbs, referred to as "refranes," are very popular in Spanish. Most of them could be translated directly into English and could apply to our culture.

A good example of a short proverb is "Quien busca halla." This would literally be "Who seeks finds." It would sound better and be a more effective message if it were translated "He who seeks, finds." In this case, "quien" represents the two words "he who."

Another slightly longer proverb is "Quien mucho duermo poco aprende." which means "He who sleeps much, learns little." Here the arrangement and sequence of the words vary from Spanish to English but the meaning is the same.

A delightful proverb is "Amor con amor se paga." (Love is paid with love.). This might also be translated as "Love with love is paid." Regardless of how it is translated, it is an important message.

Did you ever hear of the proverb "Better late than never." This would be "Mas vale tarde que nunca." in Spanish. You will notice that the verb "vale" is used instead of saying the phrase without a verb in English.

A recorded telephone message on 276-2762 will have some words from Spanish "refranes." You may practice them by dialing, listening and repeating what you hear when you dial.

IMPORTANT PHRASES

Say "Quien busca halla." (kee-EHN BOOSkah AH-yah) for "He who seeks, finds."
Say "Que halla?" (keh AH-yah)
for "What does he find?"

USEFUL PHRASES

Say "Todo lo que brilla." (TOH-thoh loh keh BREE-yah)
for "All that glitters."
Say "No es oro." (noh ehs OH-roh)
for "Is not gold."

OTHER PHRASES

Say "Mas vale tarde." (mahs VAH-leh TAHR-deh) for "Better late."
Say "Que nunca." (keh NOON-kah) for "Than never."

Dream Comes True

Spring Valley Couple Helps Mexicans

A few years ago it was the dream of Irwin and Margaret Ford of Sierra Madre dr., Spring Valley, of helping others less fortunate than themselves.

Irwin was (and still is) a worker at one of the local airplane plants, and Margaret, a former minister. They could see a great future (but a struggling one) in a home for needy and sometime adult Mexicans, below the border.

That was how the Christian Hacienda came into being, in a secluded valley, several miles below Tijuana. By collecting various odds and ends with the help of local, Spring Valley people and others, the Hacienda began to take on the look of a helping hand.

Soon many poor Mexicans began seeking help from Irwin and Margaret and it began to be an (almost) fulltime job for both the local people.

As the years went by and more and more people were seeking help, more room was needed, and more hands were needed to help around the Hacienda, which by now had to move closed in.

This move took them to an area not too far from the Calienta Race Track and on the road toward Tecate.

In time, with God's help and with others pitching in, the Hacienda became incorporated, and its name a byword on many a lip. But still help, financially and otherwise was (and still is) needed.

Many a Mexican child has been taken in at Christian Hacienda, given a place to stay, a Christian education and growing up, able to go out on his own.

But Irwin and Margaret Ford continue to work at the Hacienda and to help others and dream about what may lie ahead. A small two-page letter, distributed each month, tells quite a bit what is going on at the Hacienda:

"The entire world is face to face with the dilemma of the youth wanting somewhere to go. In years gone by there were new continents to discover and explore such as explosives, steam power, internal combustion engines, aviation, electricity, etc.

This kept new horizons in front of the coming generation. Also previously the Church and the Pastor were high in the spotlight.

But now with the myriad inventions youth finds that we have circled the globe and there are no new horizons.

To make it short no direction in which to travel except to be occupied with combinations of inventions and gadgets or anything that will give some direction to life other than routine conformity.

Thus youth rejects society, religion and all the rest that might tend to harness him or just a number out of him."

Irwin Ford told of his early struggles with life and what he finally found to be the right way.

Toward the end of the letter, the Fords had printed a picture of four charming Mexican children, the eldest girl acting in place of her mother, who had died recently (two others of the family were not present at the time).

Ford said the Hacienda now accomodates 52 children, plus the workers. He concluded that they are building a small fountain in the court yard at the Hacienda.

This gives so much life to a place. It's alive, moving, refreshing and beautiful. Things are so much greener around it. So it is with these lives.

Valley Kiwanis Interclub With El Cajon Group

The Sept. 18 breakfast-meeting of the Spring Valley Kiwanis Club, was interclubbing with the El Cajon club, and held at Alfonso's Pizza Inn on Grand ave., Spring Valley.

Ron Svalstad, acting as installing officer, installed Rev. G. Marlin Enns as a new member of the Spring Valley club. Rev. Enns is pastor and director of the Mt. Miguel Covenent Village rest home in south Spring Valley.

Paul Yee, program chairman, introduced Nelson Fry, long time San Diego resident, as the speaker of the morning. Fry is Industrial Relationsman for Rancho Bernardo.

Enhancing Fry's talk were colored slides of Rancho Bernardo. He said in the beginning two men conceived the idea of living in an area where there is an even climate and where local history abounds.

He said history is still evident near Rancho Bernardo with many Indian trails to be seen as well as part of the old Butterfield Stage line.

Fry pointed out that 5400 acres comprise the ranch and that many new developments are under way. There is abundant recreational facilities for the young and older people, he said.

He showed pictures of the shopping area, the medical and dental facilities, and said a doctor is on call 24 hours a day.

He said there are many activities for retired persons in which to participate, for, he pointed out, to keep busy is the healthy way of life.

There has been one large room built especially for the teenage group, and that room is kept in tip-top condition, by the youngsters themselves.

He said there are no visible television or telephone poles as everything is underground.

There are plenty of play areas and recreational facilities. A big parade is held once a year in the center of town with everyone taking part. And, Fry pointed out, there are church services for persons of every faith.

Social Security News

This newspaper presents this question and answer column about the Social Security program as a public service to our readers. The questions are those most frequently asked about Social Security. The answers are provided by Sumio Oto, El Cajon Social Security District Manager.

Q. My brother has been ill for over a year and his children have been living with me. I understand he now getting disability checks from social security. Are the children entitled to any benefits?

A. The children of a disabled worker may be entitled to monthly benefits as unmarried children under age 18, between 18 and 22 if they are full-time unmarried students, and unmarried disabled adult children. I would advise you to contact your social security office without delay.

Q. If I should have to go to the hospital, how do they know I am signed up for medicare?

A. Your health insurance (medicare) identification card will show the hospital that you are entitled to medicare benefits. So be sure to take this card with you if you should have to go to the hospital.

Q. I am filing my first claim for benefits from Medicare. The claim form asks for my Health Insurance Claim Number. Where do I find this number?

A. Your Health Insurance Claim Number is shown on your red, white and blue Medicare card. It is very important that this number be copied correctly onto your claim form and any papers attached to it, including the letter.

If you claim shows an incorrect number or no number, your claim cannot be processed until the correct number is located. This causes considerable delay in your payment.

Q. What kinds of benefits are paid by Social Security?

A. The law provides three kinds of cash benefits — monthly retirement benefits, monthly survivors benefits, and monthly disability benefits. However, you must apply for your benefits before they can be paid.

Q. What are the basic requirements for a young student to receive monthly social security benefits?

A. Assuming that the student is the child of a retired, disabled, or deceased parent who is insured under social security, monthly benefits may be made to an unmarried child under 18, or between 18 and 22 if the child is a full-time student in an accredited school.

Q. I have been going to a podiatrist for several months to have calluses on my feet trimmed. My daughter insists that this treatment is now covered by Medicare, but the podiatrist says no. Who is correct?

A. Your podiatrist. The recent amendments did change the definition of physician's services to include services performed by a podiatrist. However, services in connection with routine foot care, including cutting or removal of corns, warts, or calluses is not covered by Medicare.

If you have further questions regarding the Social Security Law, contact or write the Social Security District Office, 570 North Second st., El Cajon, California 92021. The office is open from 8:30 a.m. until 4:30 p.m. Monday through Friday and until 7:30 p.m. on Wednesdays. The telephone number is 442-0851.

Helix Grid Squad Ready For Clash With Hoover Cardinals

by Tom Warren

With one quarter of "experience" behind them, and a season of football ahead of them, the Heix grid squad takes on the powerful Hoover Cardinals Friday in a non-league contest that is scheduled to begin at 8 p.m. on the Highlander field.

Hoover was the only team to defeat the Highlanders last year, besides Grossmont, and the Scots will be out to avenge the loss.

The Cards come off a 15-0 victory last week over Mission Bay and look very strong this year.

Experience in key positions and a stalwart defense are the hallmarks of the Cardinal squad. The Redbird defense held Mission Bay to an amazingly low six yards on the ground, and promises to be a tough test for the Scot runners.

A key man in the Card defense is end Jack Neal. Neal, at 6'5", 220 lbs., is considered by many to be All-CIF material.

The Cardinals look equally powerful on offense, with fullback Butch Sawyer and quarterback Dan Downey leading the way.

Helix boasts a rugged defense, which proved very effective in pre-season scrimmages. A big part of this billing is due to 250 lb. Bruce Walton, the only returning starter from last year's squad.

Offensively the Scots lack the experience they've had in previous years, but as head coach Al Hammerschmidt put it, "We're finding a lot of good solid players on the team that we weren't aware of before."

The Scotties will be without the services of such standouts as tackle Tom Parks, center Steve Starling, and end Bill Denhart when they face up with the Cardinals.

Parks and Starling both were injured during summer practice, (although Starling played in the Carnival) and Denhart broke his wrist during last Friday's tilt.

Denhart is expected to be for at least five weeks, and it is not known how long Starling and Parks will be out.

Injured List

Also on the injured list is fullback Mike Stein, out with a back injury. There is a chance, however, that Stein will see action this Friday, pending the results of X-rays.

Replacing Denhart in his defensive safety position will be junior Gene Jenkins. His offensive end spot will be filled by either Mike Altoff or Roman Cham.

Helix dropped their quarter in the league football carnival 7-0 last Friday. The difference in the defense dominated quarter was a 40-yard touchdown pass from Russ Proctor to Richard Wiley.

Despite the setback, the Scot coaches were pleased with the team's performance, and are very optimistic about this Friday's game.

"The only difference between us and Grossmont in the carnival," said Coach Hammerschmidt, "was that Grossmont used all they had for a win, and we used the quarter for experience."

He pointed out that the team is improving with every practice and "has not yet reached a plateau."

Hammerschmidt singled out team captain Bruce Walton's "Great Leadership" as a key factor in the team's improvement and "Great attitude."

Besides Walton, the coach also gave recognition to Bob Cyman, Burt Clements, Kurt Brown, Steve Starling, and Milan oung for "outstanding performances" in the carnival.

College Harriers Take 3rd

The Grossmont College Cross-Country team, after coming off with a 3rd place in the Long Beach Invitational Saturday, are preparing for their league opener with Palomar College on Oct. 4.

In the L.B. Invitational, they outran Palomar, San Diego and Southwestern Colleges . . . all teams that they will face in league competition.

Coach Bob Larsen said that he was surprised that the club placed third, after the loss of Jerry Eddlebrock and Dave Matheney and All-Conference runner Brent Wilson.

In the meet, John Rios, Jim Schacht, Danny Matheny and Ed Whittler paced the team in the four-mile run.

Rios was ninth with a time of 21:18 for the course. Schacht placed 11th at 21:32 while Matheney came in 15th at 21.40. Whittler placed 25th at 22:06.

Football, Cross Country Play Opened At Monte Vista High

by Scott McGaugh

Not only did school start at Monte Vista last week, but football and cross country started as well.

The grid schedule got underway with the annual Grossmont League Football Carnival last Friday night at Aztec Bowl. Each team in the league played one quarter of the game.

The Monarchs were slated to go in the fourth quarter against a surprisingly tough Santana squad. The East Side (El Cap, Grossmont, Granite Hills, and Santana) was out in front 21-0 over the West (El Cajon, Helix, Mt. Miguel, and Monte Vista) when the Monarchs took the field.

The Sultans did push across one touchdown against Monte Vista on a fifteen yard pass to Larry Forster from Kyle Hypes for the final score of the game making it 27-0.

Santana surprised everyone by using an old Grossmont formation while on offense.

All the players would line up either to the left or the right of the center and quarterback.

The QB would then stand 10 yards back to take the pass from center and try to throw before being swamped by four or five defenders.

Monte Vista did mount one drive which was started on an interception by Bill Worden. Then Monarch QB Mike Nush mixed passes to Jim Bristol and Roger Pitts with handoffs to Vince Campoli. The drive did stall however in Sultan territory.

The Monarchs will open their season with a non-league battle with Mission Bay this Friday night at Monte Vista. Their league games begin with El Cajon Oct. 4 on the Braves' field.

Monte Vista's cross country team opened their season with a crucial non-league meet against Pt. Loma last Friday. Monte Vista was victorious, 22-35.

The Monarchs placed six men in the first ten finishers with Monarch Dave Carter winning in 10:21. Carter missed the course record by just twelve seconds, not much in cross country running.

Neil Wilson, Ray Santos, Tom Lux and Joe Mears all turned in fine performances in finishing high in the finishers.

Monte Vista is the team to beat in the Grossmont League this year with their toughest challenge coming from El Cajon, last year's Grossmont

Griffs Fall 46-19 To City College

The Grossmont College football team received a 46-19 trouncing in their season opener against San Diego City College Saturday night in Balboa Stadium.

City College jumped off with a 34-7 score at half time. Both teams scored 12 points in the second half.

The Griffins made their first score in the second quarter when defensive end Dave Lower recovered a fumble in the nd zone for six points. Don McWhorter kicked the extra point.

The locals scored again in the third quarter when quarterback Rick Riker cut around the right end for the touchdown. They came back in the last quarter on a three yard plunge by fullback Bart Williamson.

Skip Milliron carried the ball for the Griffins seven times for a 29 yard total while Leroy Woods picked up 24 yards in 7 carries.

Riker completed 13 passes for 81 yards in the passing department.

Grossmont who drew a bye this week will concentrate on fundamentals. The main emphasis will be put on blocking and rushing.

They will play at Ventura College on Oct. 5.

Helix High Harriers Humiliate Vista 17-44

The Helix High Cross Country team has shown its power as a formidable contender for the Grossmont District title when they smashed Vista 17-44 last Friday in a match held at Vista.

Sophomore Ed Mendoza led the team to victory with a 9:45 on the 1.9 mile Vista course. Closely following were two teammates, Darryl Simmons and Dennis Rodgers in 9:49 and 9:50 respectively.

The only man Vista could get into the top five was Lord with a 10 minute flat, while Steve Pitt and Lee Malsack of Helix followed up with a 10.05 and a 10:07.

The young Helix team showed vast improvement over last year's squad. The men are working more as a team, planning their race well and keeping grouped.

Coach Tom Muirhead, the Highlander's Cross Country coach, believes he has a good team on his hands with lots of potential; they have a good attitude and want to get the job done.

Next Tuesday the Highlanders meet Clairemont at Helix.

Coach Muirhead believes that if his men are improving as they plan and seem to be, then they expect to beat Clairemont soundly.

"We are working for each meet at a time," Coach Muirhead stated, "and Clairemont is the next step towards a victory over Santana."

When asked about Monte Vista and El Cajon, coach said that they are undoubtedly very strong teams.

"We are working with them in mind," he added, "but Santana is the first step and we must continually improve step by step."

This philosophy of Coach Muirhead might easily very well mean success for the Helix team this year. Last year with an extremely young team composed mostly of sophomores, a few juniors and only two seniors, the team didn't do too bad for itself.

Although last year Helix was not particularly strong, the efforts of the men have made it especially so this year.

Cajon Speedway

Drivers Expect Fast Competition Saturday

The 24th meet of the 28 races in the 1968 stock car season will get underway at Cajon Speedway at 6:30 p.m. Saturday where qualifications start.

The fourteen event program will include the last Kiddie ride program of the year, with more than 150 youngsters getting a free ride in the race cars on the banked oval.

The drivers will be looking forward to another fast pace as Bucky Peralta of El Cajon came within .01 of second of tieing Vance Butler's 1 lap mark of 18:65 last week.

Times in 13 events were near the track records.

Twenty of the big powerful unlimited engined super stocks, will be in competition in the 30 lap main event with Fords, Chevies, Chryslers, Olds and Buicks providing the power for the road style racers.

Top chauffeurs from all over San Diego County will vie for honors and the estimated $2,000 purse. $53,499.80 has been paid out so far this season a new record.

Top point leader Tex Kimbrell of Imperial Beach is moving away with a 1,074 point lead, but four other drivers have over 3,000 points. Bucky Peralta leads Richard White by only 110, while Bill Butts trails by 122 in fourth 424 ahead of Jim Hitt.

Second place John Henry of San Diego is moving up on limited steock leader Joel Blodgett of El Cajon. John Borneman of El Cajon has won the last three limited mains while being challenged by Mark Stahl of Chula Vista.

Two time champion Russ Bullen has returned to winning form with last week's victory in the super stock main event.

Bullen won eight in a row in 1966 to take the crown and winning the main will mean beating Bullen from now on.

Eleven main event winners in the 23 races insure tight competition for the full season, with new cars and drivers coming to the top each week.

Bob Chambers, of El Cajon came close to winning his first main last week. Charlie Brown of San Diego has won the last three semi mains and is on his way as a main event driver.

Roadrunners Crush Grossmont 46-0 For Second Straight Win Of Season

by Mitch Gegax

Shorty Banister's Los Toros Roadrunners downed Grossmont last Saturday 46-0 in Pop Warner football action.

Running backs Gann, Smith, and Benson led the Roadrunner scoring while end Gary Klusman and defensive back Ralph Torres added two more scores to the Roadrunner total.

Quarterback Jess Jenner showed increased confidence with much improved ball handling and the completion of four touchdown passes.

Defensive coach Joe Cazimero complimented the outstanding defensive efforts of Dan Huff, Morris Steward, Dave Camacho (three interceptions), and Rod Myrick.

The Los Toros offensive line under the guidance of assistant coach Pat Hubbard opened gaping holes in the Grossmont defense throughout the afternoon.

Next Saturday, Sept. 28, the Roadrunners meet their toughest opponent of the young season with El Cajon at 11:30 at Mt. Miguel Practice Field.

The Brahmas of the Pee Wee Division defeated Grossmont's Pee Wees 41-6. Down 6-0 in the opening period the Brahmas came roaring back and scored 41 points in the remaining three quarters.

Offensive standouts were Paul Kline, Mitch Benson, John Krings, and Rick Dodd.

Next Saturday the Brahmas travel to Orange Glen High School for a noon game with Escondido.

Sept. 14 Action

The Roadrunners dropped the Seaview Dolphins 40-12 in the Sept. 14 match at Mission Bay High School.

Running backs Sam Smith and Mike Benson accounted for four touchdowns, and two forty yard pass plays from quarterback Jess Jenner to Dave Gann and Doug Gegax added two more TD's to the Roadrunner total.

Outstanding defensive play led by Dan Huff and Morris Steward limited the Dolphins to two scores. Next Saturday Banister's Midgets face Grossmont at Mt. Miguel Practice Field.

The Los Toros Longhorns battled Alvarado to a 6-6 tie. The only Longhorn score came in the opening period on a 58 yard gallop by hard-running Rocky Lancaster. Ken Keyte, Mike Orrell, and Tom Gallagher led a strong defense that limited Alvarado to six points.

Bill Smith's Brahams dropped Skyline 20-0 behind a fine team effort of both the offense and defense.

Driving Rick Dodd scored twice and John Krings once to account for the three Brahma tallies. Mitch Benson, Mark Wynn, Howard Spencer, and Dave Gladding threw key blocks to trigger Smith's offense.

Defensive standouts were Rod Corral, Ray Smith, Ray Grove, and John Castellanos. Saturday the Brahmas face Grossmont at Mt. Miguel.

In the Jr. Pee Wee Division the Colts lost a hard fought game to East San Diego 6-7 and the Broncos fell to La Mesa 4-0. Saturday the Colts face El Cajon at Mt. Miguel and the Broncos travel to El Toyon Park for a 12 o'clock game with South Bay.

Aztec Travel To Montana For Saturday Game

The San Diego State College Aztecs will pack their warm clothes, ear muffs and hand warmers this week and travel to Bozeman, Montana for their only road game of 1968, a 2 p.m. Saturday contest against the Montana State University Bobcats.

The Aztecs could be playing in snow as some 12 inches fell just west of Bozeman last Saturday while the Bobcats were in Oregon beating Portland State University, 17-6.

Both teams go into the game with 2-0 records as Montana holds victories over the University of Idaho, 17-14 and Portland, while the Aztecs have dumped the University of Texas at Arlington 23-18, and Northern Illinois 40-21.

The Bobcats have only lost five games in 12 years at home. Montana is in the process of rebuilding after losing 19 lettermen including 15 starters and two-time All-American halfback Don Hass.

Motorbike Clinic Planned By PacTel

An all day motorcycle safety clinic, the first of its kind in San Diego County, will be staged Oct. 5 in San Diego.

The clinic, under the direction of a Pacific Telephone Community Relations Team, will be held at a company installation and construction garage at 7910 Othello.

Hours of the clinic, according to George F. Yackey Jr., chairman of the Linda Vista CRT, will be from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Approximately 500 cyclists are expected to attend the clinic, which will include a 30-minute film on two-wheel motor vehicle safety, a lecture-demonstration by six San Diego policemen who have volunteered to participate in the program and a live demonstration of safe cycle techniques.

The program is open to all ages, although it is hoped by the sponsors that the clinic attracts a large number of teens and pre-teens "since they are the ones who ride the greatest number of cycles or cycle-types."

Yackey advised obtaining free tickets for the clinic by calling either 234-5878 or 273-0148.

Water Ballet Classes Slated For Youngsters

The Ira C. Copley YMCA, 3901 Landis st., San Diego, will be conducting Water Balet Classes for Girls 8 years of age and over. Classes are to be held on Fridays from 6:30-7:30 p.m. beginning Oct. 4.

Instructor for the course is Mrs. Priscilla Rose who has taught Ballet Swimming for the Carman Ranch Club of Lemon Grove, and has worked as a swimming instructor and coach for the La Mesa and National City Municipal pools for a number of years.

The course will include an initial testing session of aquatic skills in the crawl, (front and back), breast and side strokes, flating, under-water swim and standing front dive. An intermediate card or better should be in the participants possession at the time of registration.

Exhibition Play Opens Saturday San Diego Gulls

The San Diego Gulls face four exhibition games in five nights starting Saturday, and the series could tell the final tale about the team's roster this year.

As the Gulls opened their final week of concentrated training for the 1968-69 Western Leagut season last Monday, there were battles at nearly every position.

The biggest fights were at left wing and defense, where the Gulls had lots of professional performers.

"The competition should be healthy," said Gull's General Manager-Coach Max McNab. "We have never really had much competition at defense in training camp and it should bring out the best in everyone."

Enrollment Is Up In LG Schools

The Lemon Grove School Board was in an endorsing mood Monday evening.

Trustees endorsed the local Clean-Up campaign and asked Superintendent Byron Netzley to ask the district personnel to give aid.

Dr. Austin Sellery, superintendent of the Grossmont Union High School District where an override election is set, presented the program at Monday's meeting.

He said that increased attendance, inflation, and improved programs dictated the need for asking that the override ceiling be increased from $1.50 for each $100 of assessed valuation, to $2.98.

If the issue fails on Nov. 5, the District would be forced to revert to the 85c limit. "We can't live with that," he said. The Board endorsed the issue.

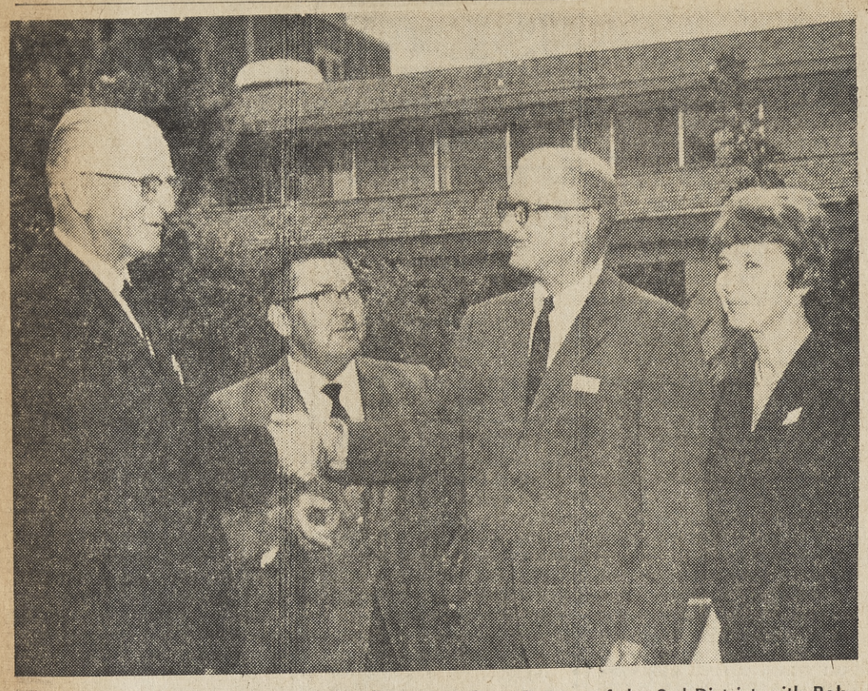
Superintendent Netzley warned the Board that Proposition 9, if it passes in Nov. would "create havoc" in the District. He asked the Board to endorse a resolution opposing the "Tax Trap hoax." The Board did — making it three in a row.

Business manager Paul Reynolds reported that the District would suffer a loss of "several hundred dollars" as a result of the vandalism commited by two local juveniles on two Lemon Grove schools.

Insurance covered most of the loss, including a $550 master clock at Golden Ave. school. Some of the stolen items have not been recovered, he said.

He also reported that the parents of the culprits had been contacted regarding payment to the district for the damage but "it doesn't look very encouraging," he said.

Netzley reported that school enrollment is up "about 100 pupils. We are beginning to grow again," he warned the Board.



GROVE VISIT: Delegates made up of residential care facility administrators who were in San Diego for their annual convention, made a side trip to the Monte Vista Lodge in Lemon Grove on Friday. Mrs. Ethel Vargo (far right), administrator of the local facility was host for the visitors.

does not equip him with the academic responsibility and standards so necessary in college teaching."

State Superintendent of Education Max Rafferty: "The whole idea is ridiculous. He (U.C. President Charles J. Hitch) should be concerned about this . . . including his own job."

Col. Tom S. Clayton, Commander in Chief of the Military Order of the World Wars: "Professor Marcuse, Eldridge Cleaver, and people of their philosophy, have no place on the campuses of our California colleges and universities. They do more to erode the high ideals of our natural heritage than the Castros, the Stalins and the Hitlers could ever do. This situation would repulse the men who have paid for freedom with their lives. We must decide whom we would serve — our patriots and our country, or the Cleavers and the Marcuses."

State Controller Houston I. Flournoy suggests that banning Cleaver would hurt the feelings of the faculty. He indicated it would be better to let Cleaver talk than to injure the finer sensibilities of the jerks who urge his appearance.

Specifically, Flournoy said in a wire to each of the Regents: "I urge you not to rashly destroy crucial relations with the faculty . . . I know of the disasterous impact upon the faculty if you act to ban Cleaver." Flournoy is a nut!!

Amber Warning Lights To Aid Jamacha-Elkelton

SAN DIEGO (CNA) — County engineer David K. Speer has suggested that an amber warning light be placed at the corner of Jamacha and Elkelton, rather than full traffice signal lights.

He told supervisors that the conduit will be installed as a change order on the present job to widen Jamacha between Skyline and Sweetwater to four lanes.

The county received a petition from the Avondale School PTA with 350 signatures asking that the intersection be signalized.

Speer said one of the amber warning lights has been installed on Winter Gardens blvd. and is working successfully. The ambler light flashes on and off for 45 seconds when a button is pressed.

Then it turns off for one minute to allow the car traffic to flow.

The California Highway Patrol, Speer said, is "very, very" pleased with the present warning light.

It cost only $2,800 instead of the $18,000 to $30,000 that full lighting costs.

Speer said the intersection in Spring Valley does not meet any of the criteria for a signalized intersection.

Supervisor Robert Dent said he has a meeting scheduled with some of the people in the area to discuss the situation.

programs. Another period of conservatism will produce strife within the profession that would upset programs now established, he added.

If the issue passes, it is likely that only part of the funds would be budgeted each year — probably 20% or less. The tax would also be levied in the same fashion. It would cost the average homeowner ($20,000 home value) $15 more each year for five years reaching $60 the fifth year.

Watson Culver, Campaign Chairman, said that while our population is multiplying, beds and space remain stationary unless the voters give the Directors permission to expand the hospital.

In the last campaign, a majority of voters were in favor, but the count fell short of the 2/3 required by law.

TV8 REVAMPS EARLY P.M. NEWS!

the BIG NEWS

SPECIAL ISSUE — KFMB-TV8 San Diego, California — FALL 1968

TWO HOUR DAILY SPECTACULAR with New Faces, New Features, New Time: 5:30 p.m.!

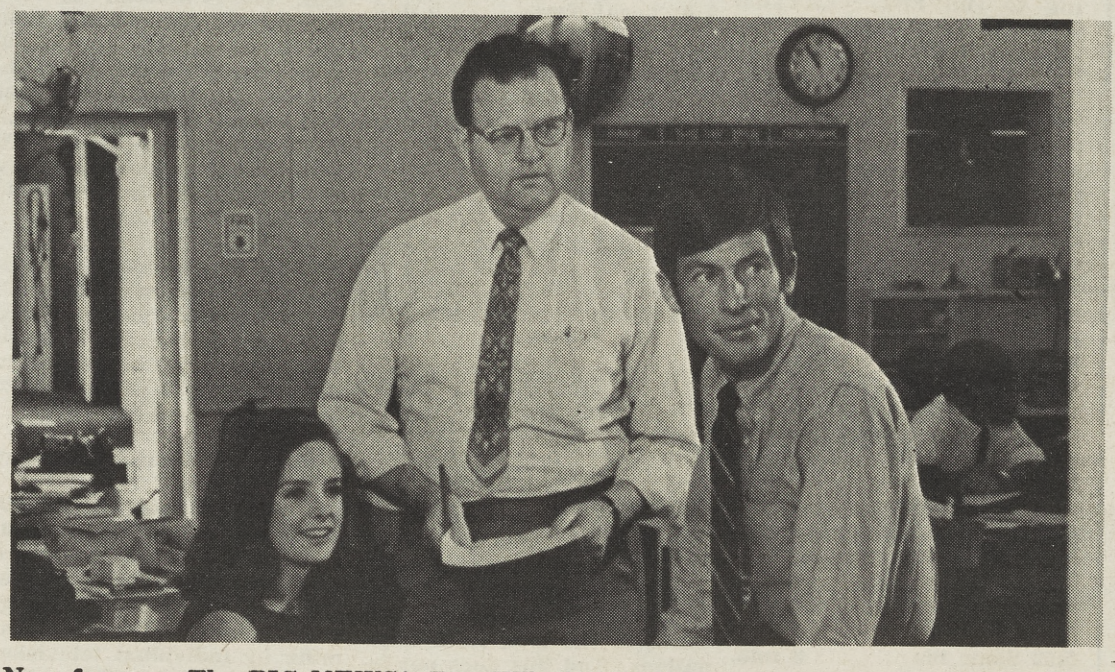
"The biggest, and the best news show we have ever had, since we began telecasting 20 years ago!" That is the way George Whitney, Vice President and General Manager of KFMB-TV, describes The BIG NEWS.

"We were the third television station licensed in the State of California," Whitney said, "we went on the air May 16, 1949, right after San Francisco's KPIX. Since that time, our news has won more than 58 national and regional awards — everything from 'The Emmy' to the 'Sylvania'. Today, we have the most widely-watched and respected news program in San Diego and we intend to continue our dominance."

Half an hour longer and twice as interesting might be one way to summarize the format of The BIG NEWS. The show is aired nightly from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m., Monday through Friday. Part 1, which takes an hour, features TV8's award-winning news team. In addition to commentary by regulars such as Ray Wilson, Bob Regan, Harold Keen, and Doug Oliver, Part 1 also features newcomers Nicki Pierce, with "Show Biz", Arora Lee, on "Weatherword", and Arch MacPhail, who comments on sports. In another new feature, George Lewis contrasts today's headline stories with those of the past (see History "Q", page 2).

Part 1 is followed by CBS NEWS with Walter Cronkite, which in turn, is followed by Part II of the BIG NEWS. In addition to such regulars as Lyle Bond, Ray Wilson, Harold Keen, and Bob Dale, Mel Knoepp appears as "Action Reporter", calling attention to situations in the community which need correcting.

ARORA LEE



New faces on The BIG NEWS! Ray Wilson, center, needs no introduction. Long the anchorman on the show "Where more San Diegans get their news than from any other source," he continues his measured, meticulous reporting on The BIG NEWS. Nicki Pierce, left, reports "Show Biz" (see page 5) and Arch MacPhail, right, sports editor and daily columnist for an area newspaper the past two years, comments on sports in The BIG NEWS, Part I beginning at 5:30 p.m.

"Arora" Is A Natural for Weather

Watchers of The BIG NEWS agree unanimously; Arora Lee adds a couple of real exclamation points to "Weatherword"!! No bigger than a 10 second spot, the petite newcomer's presence also brings a delightful bit of "Mutt and Jeff" incongruity to the weather show — her partner, Doug Oliver, is 6' 6"; she is 5' 1".

Despite her youth, Arora is just 18, she has had a surprising amount of theatrical experience. A talented actress, she also sings, dances, and has appeared with such teenage groups as "Shelltones" and "Exciters."

Mel Knoepp is Action Reporter

What Is an "Ombudsman"?

An "ombudsman" is an individual who acts as a city's conscience. He intercedes between factions, reports to the people on situations that need correcting, and follows up with reports when the wrong is righted.

That's Mel Knoepp's role as Action Reporter for TV-8's Big News seen week nights from 5:30-7:30 p.m.

This award-winning reporter brings to his job skills he has honed to a fine edge during eight years as morning news editor.

He often calls on his skill as a pilot, too, flying Channel 8 cameramen into an isolated area to get the Big Story!

Don't miss Mel Knoepp, skilled newsman, pilot, ombudsman, and Action Reporter on the Big News!

DOUG OLIVER

Why Call it The Big News?

More people, more reports than ever before!

Two full hours of news, reports and features, beginning 5:30 p.m. every weekday night, that's a capsule description of TV8's early evening coverage. According to Bill Fox, station manager of KFMB-TV, the average minute by minute schedule will resemble the one shown below. Fox emphasized, however, that all times are approximate. "Whenever major events are breaking," Fox said, "we will, of course, give them the coverage they deserve. Rigid time scheduling in a news show is neither desirable nor practicable."

The BIG NEWS—Part I

5:31	World News R. Wilson	6 min.
5:38	Local News Regan and Pierce	7 min.
5:47	History Q G. Lewis	4 min.
5:52	Show Biz N. Pierce	3 min.

6:01	Calif. News M. Knoepp	3 min.
6:05	Sports A. MacPhail	5 min.
6:11	Weather D. Oliver	4 min.
6:16	Comment H. Keen	2 min.
6:22	Spec. Report B. Regan	3½ min.
6:27	Wrap Up R. Wilson	2 min.

6:30 to 7:00 P.M.
WALTER CRONKITE,
CBS NEWS

The BIG NEWS—Part II
7:00 to 7:30 P.M.

7:01	Local News R. Wilson	5 min.
7:07	Action Reporter M. Knoepp	4 min.
7:12	People H. Keen	4½ min.
7:17	Sports L. Bond	4½ min.
7:23	Lighter Side B. Dale	2½ min.
7:28	Wrap Up R. Wilson	1½ min.

With this expanded news, Fox pointed out, KFMB-TV, Channel 8, is now presenting more than 51 hours of locally- produced (non-network) color programming each week.

"That's more than five hours of 'live' color programming each weekday," Fox said, "representing more than two-thirds of the total local originations. And this does not include color productions such as 'TV Classroom' or 'Zoorama' which are recorded and not aired 'live.' As a matter of fact, we lead the nation in local color originations."

Producing just one show with the scope of The BIG NEWS takes an astonishing number of people. In addition to the staff of 12 "on-the-air" reporters, there are cameramen, writers, editors, producers, directors, film cutters, audio and lighting engineers — a total of 50 more people!

And is the expenditure of all this time, money, and talent justified? TV8 thinks so.

More people are watching the early-evening news today than ever before. According to TIO, the newsletter of the Television Information Office, which is located in New York, the figures show substantial increases in the past five years. Since 1962-63, the audience in the 6:30 to 7:00 p.m. bracket has increased by 11%, and by 8% in the 7:00 to 7:30 time slot.

On the average, 51% of the sets in the country, over half of all television homes, were tuned in during the 6:30 to 7:00 p.m. period in 1967-68. In the 7:00 to 7:30 period, 55.8% of the sets were in use.

Why this dramatic increase?

Experts attribute the growth to these factors: 1) A troubled world and therefore greater public interest in television news; 2) Much stronger and better news programming by individual television stations, such as TV8's The BIG NEWS.

"It's all part of the cost of reaching the growing and sophisticated audience of San Diego County," Fox said. "The percentage of homes with color sets, for example, in the San Diego area is higher than the national average, and second only to Los Angeles in major market color penetration. The appetite for news is second to none, and in The BIG NEWS, we know we have the means to satisfy it."

WALTER CRONKITE

Cronkite part of Big News

Walter Cronkite is younger than you think. Born November 4, 1916, he is only 51, but he radiates so much incisiveness and wisdom, one thinks of him as being older.

As managing editor and anchor man of the CBS EVENING NEWS, he is also very much a part of TV8's "The Big News," and his segment of that show will be aired nightly, Monday through Friday from 6:30 to 7:00 p.m. His function is to bring depth and dimension to "The Big News."

It is a function to which Cronkite brings remarkable skill and experience.

Recipient of the Peabody Award, he also has received the Distinguished Alumni Award from the University of Texas.

His "show me" attitude, however, the hallmark of any good reporter, came to him naturally. He was born in Missouri.

"Jolly Thin Giant" Is High Point of The Big News

Genial Doug Oliver used to point with pride to his previous home town of Boston; he was the only one tall enough to reach the state of Massachusetts on the weather map unaided! Today, of course, he doesn't need to stretch; he does the weather report from a console. He is right at home with a console too, because Doug is also a very fine organist and pianist. He not only plays professionally, his collection of old records and sheet music is one of the best.

A TV8 weather man since 1961, his good-natured and witty words about the weather are a very big part of The BIG NEWS.

HISTORY Q Is Part of the Big News!

TV8's youngest newsman, county news editor, George Lewis, is also responsible for TV8's oldest news; and the result is a very interesting give-away feature on The BIG NEWS. Called "History Q", the program uses film of famous events, the choice usually being one that happened on that day in history. Lewis shows the event, then phones a number selected previously by computer. If the person on the line can identify the event, he wins whatever money is in History Q jackpot that day.

GEORGE LEWIS

Lewis joined TV8 as part-time cameraman six years ago while a student at San Diego State College. Upon graduation with a degree in political science, he went on the air full time. And the distinction of being the youngest regular newsman on San Diego TV? "A dubious honor," says Lewis, who reports a secret wish to become prematurely gray.

His beat: the whole state. His badge: Hawaii Five-O.

Harold Keen is part of the Big News

The first program ever televised by TV8 was an inaugural show from the ballroom of the San Diego Hotel. The first network show was Fred Waring. And the first news show? That was Harold Keen's, "People in the News."

Today, that show is still very much a part of The BIG NEWS, as well as one of the oldest TV news-commentary and interview programs in the nation.

Over the years, he has interviewed nearly 17,000 people, both famous and obscure, but all in the news; and his skill in extracting pertinent facts from his subjects, almost legendary, is widely imitated, but seldom equalled.

This probing news "sense", plus his intimate knowledge of news sources, have combined to earn many awards — including first in the California Associated Press Awards three consecutive times! Don't miss Harold Keen, every weekday evening in The BIG NEWS.

HAROLD KEEN

San Diego has "Flipped"

The Bob Dale Show... Live, Local, Color! Now 120 minutes of everything!

The big news about The Bob Dale Show is this: as a result of a "popularity explosion," it has been increased to two hours in length — from 3:30 to 5:30 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Beginning as an hour show on July 17, 1967, the show's irrepressible host and bubbly format captivated San Diego viewers and advertisers at an unprecedented rate. Early this year, it was increased to 90 minutes, and finally, to its present two hours.

Now, it can truly be said that The Bob Dale Show has everything — fun, variety, laughs, "live" music and audience, give-aways, and interviews with some of the biggest names from Hollywood and Las Vegas!

Keynote of the show's popularity—number one in its time period in San Diego —is the show's spontaneous, "unrehearsed" quality. This comes, in part, from the reaction of a live studio audience of about 100 people, the "live" music of Bill Green and the group, featuring vocalist Jan Tober, but most of all it comes from Dale himself. His philosophy concerning TV is "a sincere attempt at unscripted TV — to entertain, to please, to interest, and to make people happy they sat down with us." It is a natural outgrowth paralleling development of his own career. A native of Ohio, he came to TV8 in 1956 as a staff announcer. San Diegans enjoyed his witty ways, and he became host on The Early Show for 10 years prior to the start of his present show. His hobbies include golf, flying, and being one of the best dressed men in the country.

Who Is Ernie Davis?

Ernie Davis is a newcomer to broadcasting, but you will be seeing a lot of him on TV8 in the days ahead. A neophyte newsman, he developed his interest in broadcasting in the navy.

One Christmas, he volunteered to act as master of ceremonies for a talent show and was so stimulated by the experience that he decided to become a standup comic. To that end, he took courses in radio, television, speech arts, and drama. But along the way, Ernie decided comedy was more Bill Cosby's bag than his and switched to his natural interest — news reporting.

Ernie devotes his leisure time to the arts — attending good theater, and enjoying good poetry.

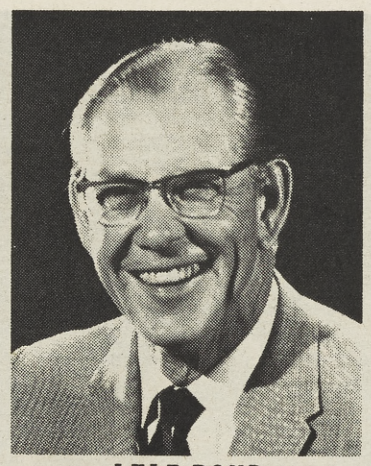
BOB REGAN

Bob Regan is part of the Big News

Bob Regan's crisp way with the news is as highly regarded off the air as on. Not only is he a consultant to the San Diego area instructional television authority, he also teaches his craft at San Diego City College.

Skill comes from education and long experience, and when you look into Bob Regan's background, you find both. A graduate of Occidental, he began in radio. Owner, station manager, program director, announcer — name it, he's done it.

Today, in addition to his reports on The BIG NEWS, he is TV8's night news editor, and anchorman on "Newsroom". He also does a weekly report on the war in Vietnam — with more than usual insight. A decorated veteran of World War II, he is also a major in the U.S. Marine Corps Reserve.



LYLE BOND

Lyle Bond is part of the Big News

Most folks are startled to learn that Lyle Bond began as an actor, appearing on "Blondie," "Life of Riley," "Hollywood Star Time" and other famous shows from early radio.

He continued in motion pictures. You may have seen him in "Duel in the Sun," "A Man Called Peter," "Kid From Left Field" or "Rhubarb."

But when television was in its infancy, he began appearing on national shows as a reporter and sports narrator. Subsequently, he has become known to San Diegans as "The Voice of the San Diego Chargers" and Sports Editor for TV-8's Big News.

Lyle has been a resident of San Diego since 1959. He enjoys swimming, golf, and in his spare moments, he loves to go fishing.

Win Money Watching!

The Bob Dale Show features PAY DAY!

$453

Imagine that you are spending a quiet afternoon at home. The housework is done, and there's still time before you must start dinner, so you are enjoying TV8. Suddenly, your phone rings, and because you are watching Pay Day, you know how much money is being awarded, so you win! That's what happened to Mrs. Ora Hankins, shown above with Bob Dale. She won $452.88, and it was the first prize or contest she has ever won!

How does Pay Day work? It's the simplest give-away game in the world! Exciting and suspenseful too, because as you watch, the money total builds up and up; and you may be the next one called! Just tune in to the Bob Dale Show any weekday afternoon between 3:30 and 5:30 on lively, local TV 8. Bob usually has an audience of 100 or more, and one of these ladies is chosen to select a phone number. First, she draws a number.

The amount to be awarded is given over the air, and Bob Dale calls the number. If the person who answers the phone is able to give the exact amount of the prize, all the money—sometimes hundreds of dollars—is his!

What if the line is busy, or no one answers, or the person who is called cannot give the correct answer? No prize is given, and another $8.88 is added to the total for the next call. And since Bob calls at least four numbers every day during his show, you can see that the total mounts up fast—$35.52 a day, if there are no winners!

If you haven't been watching The Bob Dale Show, you've been missing out on Pay Day. You've also been missing out on a lot of first rate, entertainment, with music by Bill Green and the group, songs by Bob himself and Jan Tober, and hilarious interviews with guest stars such as Arthur Godfrey, Ed Ames, Leonard Nimoy, Arthur Fiedler, Rosemary Clooney, Mickey Spillane, Fred and Micky Finn.

Now, a full two hours of fun, music, and variety, with hundreds of dollars given away each week to the viewers at home as part of the daily Pay Day feature—that's The Bob Dale Show! See you this afternoon?

Color Cameras, Color Them "Green"!

Total color broadcasting on TV8 totals up to a lot of dollars! According to George Whitney, Vice President and General Manager, the station's three Norelco color cameras alone represent an investment of $222,000.

But cameras are only part of the picture. Set design, lighting, and make-up for colorcasting are much more critical, and the picture must also be good in black and white.

TV8's color studio, color cameras, color videotape recorders, and lighting cost an estimated $800,000."

Name TV8's Symbol for the Big News!

This is TV8's symbol for The BIG NEWS. You will see it throughout tne program, as part of the open and close, as TV8's part of the set, and on the jacket pockets of newsmen. Can you give it a name? Fill out the coupon and mail it in!

Win a King-sized Weekend at The Ahwahnee in Yosemite—free! Just study TV8's symbol for The BIG NEWS and think of a name for it, and send it in. Winning name will be announced on The BIG NEWS, and if it is yours, here is what you will receive: Food and lodging for you and members of your immediate family for four days and nights, plus $50 for gasoline and travel expenses.

Here are some hints to help you win. Don't try to say what the symbol looks like to you. Try to think of one word, non-descriptive, such as a nickname. For example, the statuette awarded to the best motion picture actor and actress each year is called "Oscar."

Hopefully, your name will also be appropriate to the serious business of news gathering and reporting. TV8's reporters are first and foremost working journalists, not announcers turned reporters. TV8 reporters appear only on news programs. They do not deliver commercials.

So put on your "thinking cap." And when you have thought of a name, write it on the coupon at left and mail it in. All entries become the property of TV8, and none can be acknowledged or returned.

Nicki Pierce . . . She talks about the Stars on Show Biz!

One of the brightest new features of The BIG NEWS is "Show Biz," and many viewers have wondered "who is this young woman who talks so knowingly of Hollywood and Broadway?"

Nicki Pierce has worked as a free lance actress, model, and dancer since the age of fourteen. She has made industrial and educational films. She has also made commercials and test commercials for over 35 major products, as well as modeling for catalogs of mail-order houses.

Somewhere during all this activity, which includes work on three different TV stations in Chicago, she found time to earn a degree at Northwestern University. She was graduated with a Bachelor of Science in Speech in 1966.

If you enjoy news of show business with interviews, and behind the scenes features, tune in The BIG NEWS, and watch Nicki Pierce. She has a talented, well-educated —as well as a very pretty—nose for news!

Big News Staff goes to Blazers!

The "Clean-cut Dozen," that's what camera men and technicians in TV8's studios are calling members of The BIG NEWS these days. The cause for all the banter is a profusion of gold blazers. Every TV8 newsman now wears one of the trim jackets bearing The BIG NEWS symbol.

There were several good reasons for the innovation according to George Stantis, KFMB-TV's program director.

"We built a new set", Stantis said, "and the background is mostly cool blue. We needed an accent color both in the other elements of the set and in the men's clothing, so we chose gold."

Bob Mills... He Helps the Sunup!

If you belong to the PTA, Kiwanis or any other service club, chances are good you know Bob Mills personally. When he isn't hosting Sunup, weekday mornings 8:00 to 9:00, he is busy making personal appearances.

Bob has a sincere interest in what is happening around San Diego. On a recent trip across country, Bob appeared on many TV stations, talked to groups about the 200th Anniversary Celebration and showed films.

Since August 15, 1960 Bob has hosted Sunup over 2,000 times! And if you haven't met him in person yet, you probably will soon, unless you happen to be a complete stay-at-home!

Sue White... clears clouds away on Sunup!

Sue White's easy ways with the weather, fashions, and interviews on Sunup would lead one to believe she has had years of formal training in speech.

She has not. She's a "natural" with years of study in the toughest school of all: Experience.

Sue did not even set out to have a show business career. She was merely looking for work in Longview, Texas; and although she had no experience, she landed a job as a copy writer for radio station KFRO and was on her way.

She has been with TV8 for almost eight years, and it seems that show business was her destiny after all: her busband is a director at TV8, and one daughter is the well-known Suzannah Jordan who appears in "Peyton Place."

Who is Shane? No one knows for sure. Take his name, for example. Does anyone really know whether it's short for "John T. Shane" or "Shane T. Johns"? He's not telling, nor are his friends. All that's certain is that his gentle clowning on Sunup every weekday morning is a vital part of that show's character. He also produces and directs his own morning show, "Adventures of Shane and the Magic Barrel."

Some people say he used to be a commercial artist. Others claim to know that he has traveled with a circus. But these things are really irrelevant. Shane has emerged as a professional artist — a personality for children of all ages. And as he says, "Silly is a very serious business!"

See the "Breakfast News" on Sunup!

TV8 has The BIG NEWS at 5:30 p.m. and the late news on Newsroom at 11:00 p.m., but have you ever sampled the "breakfast news" on Sunup? Many viewers have discovered it's a quick and entertaining way to keep informed on world and local events. A surprising number of things happen while San Diegans sleep, so the news on Sunup is always as fresh as your morning coffee.

Jonathan Dunn - Rankin gives two reports each weekday morning, shortly after 8:00 a.m. and again just before 9:00. Each report is a five minute summary. If you have a portable TV set at your house, why not borrow it for use in your breakfast room? Then turn it on tomorrow and enjoy Sunup along with your "Breakfast News."

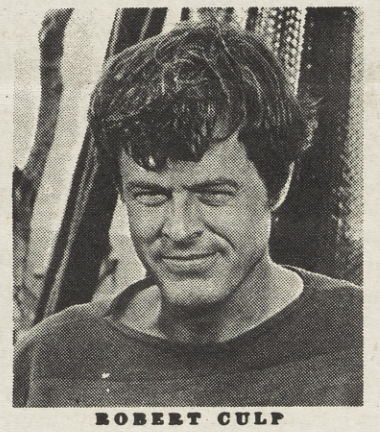
Guess who's spying for TV8?

Bill Cosby and Robert Culp!

BILL COSBY



ROBERT CULP

This season, television's most popular cloak and dagger pair is headquartered at KFMB-TV every Tuesday at 7:30 p.m., in color.

Be sure to join Robert Culp and Bill Cosby in "I Spy". As Kelly Robinson and Alexander Scott, they take you to Greece, Hong Kong, Spain and Mexico on a tour fraught with international intrigue, romance and adventure.

"I Spy" delivers the biggest one-two punch in television.

ONE: Robert Culp, an actor who has already won awards for his "warm portrayal of Kelly in "I Spy" and a "distinguished actor" award for his off-Broadway theater work. As a writer, Culp has written seven "I Spy" scripts, and as a director of one segment, "COURT OF THE LION," his work is outstanding.

TWO: Bill Cosby, one of contemporary America's most popular entertainers and actors. He demonstrated his ability to pull the king-sized audience this spring in his own hour-long special. He's also won the Emmy Award two years in a row for "performance by an actor in a dramatic series" for his portrayal of Alexander Scott. Cosby's four best-selling records have delighted America and won two Grammy Awards in the process.

Big News features Circular Film Screen

How do you project a square picture and make it come out round? That was the problem faced by Ray Trail, TV8's art director, as he designed a new set for the BIG NEWS. During the news, photos of people and events in the news are frequently flashed on a screen to help illustrate the story.

Ray's solution, with some able assistance from the engineering staff who helped to build it, was a giant disk, six feet in diameter, framed in metal and covered with translucent screen material, plus circular masks for the slide projector.

The finished product is called a "rear screen" because pictures are projected onto the rear of the screen rather than the side which faces the viewer, and the picture shines through.

So far as TV8 knows, it is the only circular rear screen in use in the television industry, and as viewers of The BIG NEWS know, it is a novel and interesting way to "round out" the events of the day.

JONATHAN DUNN-RANKIN

Jonathan Dunn-Rankin part of the Big News

Jonathan Dunn-Rankin's credentials for the TV8 Big News team are a Master's degree from the Columbia School of Journalism and 18 years of newspaper and television reporting.

He's covered the news in depth from the sun-kissed shores of Florida to the burning wastes of Arizona with a little side trip to the icy Great Lakes thrown in for good measure.

When he's not reporting the news, Jonathan Dunn-Rankin is busy as one of San Diego's outstanding little theater actors. So if the face you see on the other side of the footlights looks familiar, don't be surprised. You're probably meeting the Big News' Jonathan Dunn-Rankin out of character, . . . er, . . . in character . . . ahh . . . .

Hard-Hitting Ben Gazzara!

He runs for his life on TV8!

Perry Mason has retired from TV8. A younger, more colorful man has taken his place. The result is thundering good drama which crackles across your screen every night of the week from 11:30 to 12:30.

The show is "Run For Your Life." The runner is Paul Bryan, 35, well to do, has an Ivy League law degree, and works as a successful corporation lawyer. He is also a handsome bachelor with no living relations. But doomed.

In one, at most two years, he will be dead. Of natural causes. Suddenly. Until that time, he will look and feel perfectly normal. Already dead, for all practical purposes, he has a leftover life to run to earth. Twenty years in two.

And run he does. He embarks on a remarkable odyssey — sky-diving, cliff-diving, scuba-diving; chasing speed records and beautiful women; performing rescues that save the innocent; resorting to violence to overwhelming criminals. These episodes are typical:

JULIE HARRIS as a novelist who accuses Paul of rape. SALLY ANN HOWES as a "devoted" wife of a racing car driver who Paul uncovers as the saboteur of her husband's car.

JAMES WHITMORE as a police chief who tries to save his own neck by sacrificing Paul's. You'll find yourself caught up (and staying up!) as Paul Bryan runs for his life.

And Perry Mason? Well, Perry Mason was a little "colorless," really, and some of those women's dresses were looking a bit long!

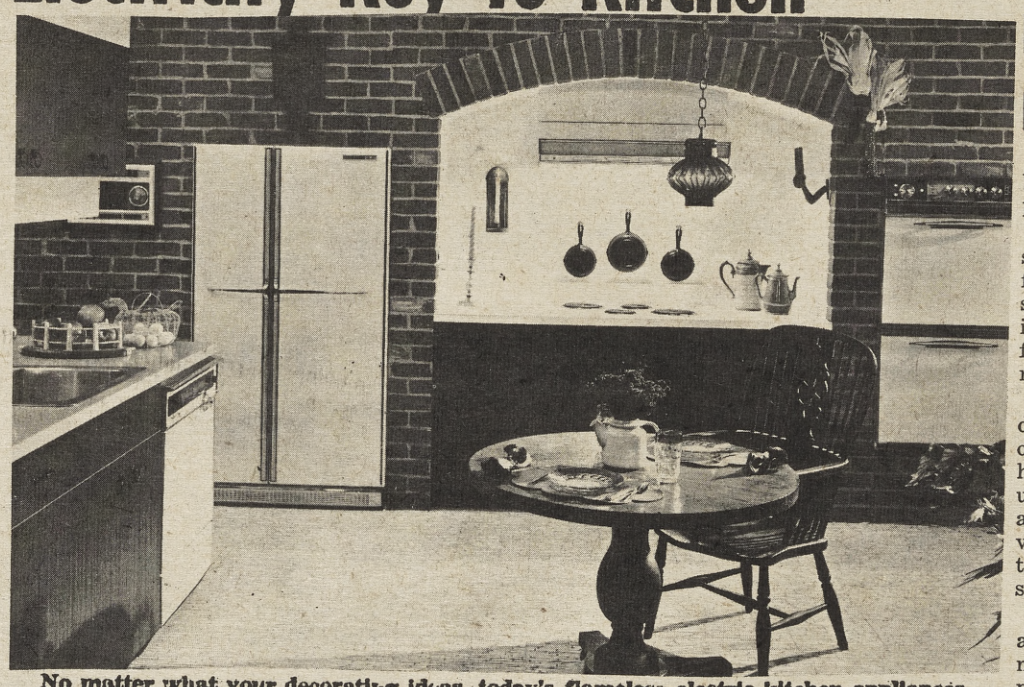
Electricity Key to Kitchen



No matter what your decorating ideas, today's flameless electric kitchen appliances fall right into the scheme of things with their beautiful new designs and remarkable versatility.

The kitchen is one area of the house that is no longer being taken for granted by today's home planners.

As a matter of fact, the floor plans for modern kitchens look like they arrived by way of a geometry textbook. Triangles, circles, ellipses and parallelograms are showing up in kitchen designs today, and they make a homemaker's cooking hours more pleasant and easier.

A large portion of the credit for these happier hours goes to the design advances made in flameless electric ranges, ovens, dishwashers, refrigerator-freezers, and garbage disposers.

"Built-in" is a key word in many of the new kitchen designs and appliances, and the most exciting built-ins of all are the new flame-less electric ovens that clean themselves. Now you can get self-cleaning, built-in ovens and correlated flameless electric cook tops in exciting new colors and designs that will make your kitchen beautiful as well as functional.

Only flameless electricity offers the clean, evenly controlled heat for cooking that comes with these beautiful new applicances. And, because electric ranges put heating elements in direct contact with pots and pans, heat transfer is direct and almost 100% efficient. Efficiency is a big factor in flameless electric ovens too. Only electric ovens are insulated in all six sides to keep the heat inside, just where you want it.

THIS CARPET IS PORTABLE, REPLACEABLE

Kitchen carpeting today can be stylish, wall-to-wall — and portable.

It's a carpet available in foot-square tiles with high density foam rubber backing designed so they may be removed and individually spot cleaned, refitted into a new residence or rotated for traffic.

Perfect for an apartment dweller, a home renter, or an often-transferred executive and his family, this portable/reusable carpet is the result of a new installation method developed by the Ozite Corporation for the company's exclusive Carpet Tiles.

Called the Porta-Tile Installation Method, it is reported to make the installation of a carpet tiled kitchen floor simple and fast, and permit removal of one or all of the tiles without damaging the original floor surface.

According to observers this type of installation consists of simply securing one row of tiles across the length and one row along the width of the kitchen with double face tape. The remaining tiles then are laid into place.

According to company spokesmen, this loose - lay method is possible because Ozite carpet tiles are made to extremely exacting specifications. They point out that the tiles may be positioned side-by-side so securely that they do not separate at the seams or dislodge, even under heavy traffic or frequent vacuuming.

Ozite has tested its Porta-Tile Installation Method in kitchens, bathrooms, bedrooms, family rooms, recreation rooms, corridors, entrance lobbies, even convention exhibits.

In addition to the simplicity of installation and portability of the carpet tiles, the Porta-Tile Method is said to offer numerous other advantages.

When spills and stains occur, the individual soiled tile may be lifted out, sponged off at the sink and replaced. Carpet tiles are made of polypropylene olefin fiber that resist most stains and requires minimal care. Daily vacuuming and normal cleaning are sufficient, according to home consultants.

For the homemaker who likes change in decor, accent tiles in new colors may be added or patterns altered to create a new room design.

The Porta-Tile installation method also permits tiles to be rotated for greater wear. For example, tiles installed in front of a kitchen sink or range where traffic is heavy may be exchanged with those in less-trafficked areas.

Carpet tiles are recommended for any indoor application, especially kitchens, bathrooms, family rooms, hallways, and other hard-use areas of the home. They come in a wide variety and permit the homeowner to design a checked, striped, or random-patterned soft floor covering.

EVEN THE KITTIE gets into the act during a honeymooners' installation of carpet tiles. Available in foot-square tiles with high density foam rubber backing so they may be removed and individually spot cleaned, refitted into a new residence or rotated for traffic. Carpet Tiles by Ozite.

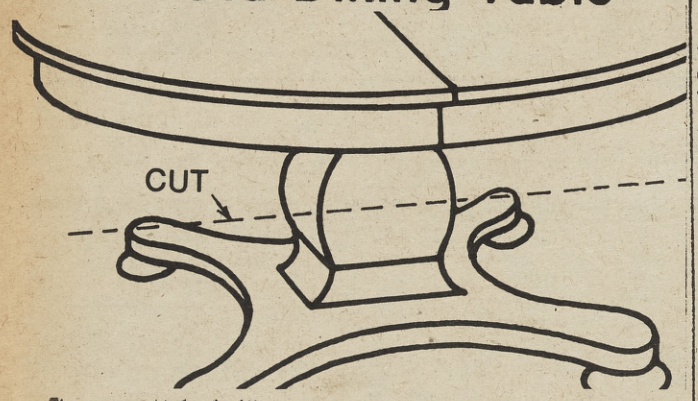
Don't Throw Away Your Old Dining Table



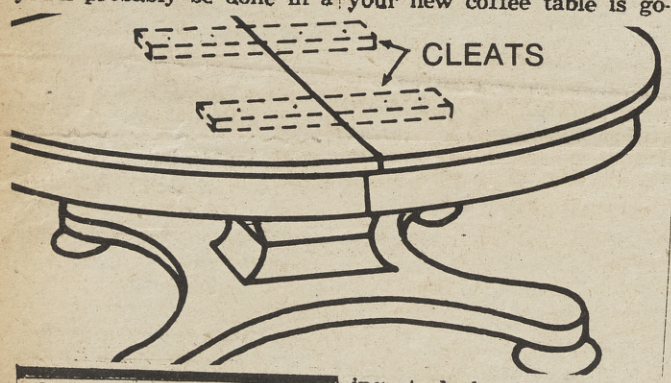
It may not look like much now, but your old dining room table can be re-made into a beautiful coffee table. It's such a simple project, any woman can do it herself.

Once you have cut down the pedestal to the height you desire — usually 18 - 20 inches — then cut through the middle section of the table top if you wish to reduce its diameter. Both cuts can be easily made with a power saw.

Next, seal the two end sections together with plastic putty. When the putty is dry, sand the table top smooth. A power sander makes this job easy. Start with a heavy grit sandpaper, then change to finer paper to smooth the surface. Done by hand, this job would take hours, even days. With a power sander, you'll probably be done in a fraction of the time. If the table is very old it probably has a number of coats of varnish. In that case, it's best to remove the built-up varnish with a commercial solvent before sanding. If the legs are ornate, you'll have to sand the finish off by hand or use a comercial paint remover.

Once you've completed these steps, it's time to refasten the base to the table. Attach two hardboard cleats underneath the table tob directly across the dividing line down the center. This will keep the two halves tightly together. These cleats should measure about three inches wide by 18 inches long and one inch thick. The cleats should be attached with 1-3/4-in flat-head screws.

The real work is over. You can now see exactly how your new coffee table is going to look. From here on out, it's all fun.



Decide what kind of finish you want to apply. Paint would be best if you cut down the table top, since there is a break in the grain of the wood in the center of the table. Quick drying enamels do a professional-looking job. If you've been intrigued by the new and easy antiquing processes on the market, this is the perfect piece to experiment with since it didn't cost you a penny. Remember, if you don't like the finish, you can sand it down again and start over. No damage done.

Time For A New Lawn

There are two schools of thought on planting lawns. One holds that spring is the best time — the other says fall is better, and the argument will probably never be resolved.

The pro-fall people have a strong case as that is the season when nature plants grass seed. In nature, grass seed ripens in summer, then hangs on the plans until September-October before falling to earth, there to catch the early rains and germinates.

Fall-planted lawns get off to a quic start as the soil is still warm and conditions for germination are at their best. The new grass plans will take hold over the winter months and fill in quickly when the spring growth cycle starts.

Without taking sides, the California Association of Nurserymen points out fall is definitely an excellent time to start a new lawn or replant an old one. In regard to the latter, if you have struggled with a less than satisfactory carpet of grass over the past few years, the fall months are a good time to dig it up and start anew.

Noteworthy is the fact that in the fall months many annual weeds don't germinate as readily or cause the problems they do in spring. This is another advantage in planting a lawn in the fall.

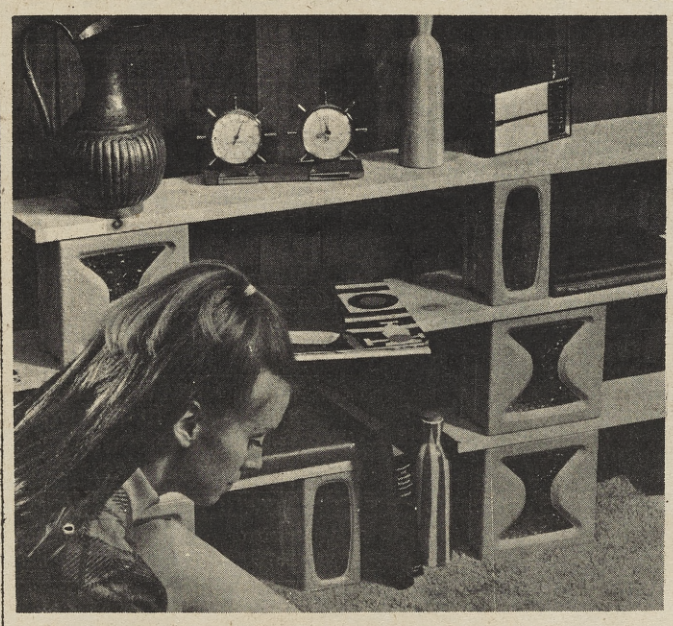
The most important step in lawn planting is to work up a good seed bed, building-up humus as you go. A power-driven rotary tiller is indispensable in this job. A tiller will pulverize the soil to a depth of three to five inches. After a primary going over it can be used again to work in the necessary soil conditioners for adding humus to the planting area. For this, your C.A.N. nurserfman can recommend fertilizers and special soil improvers for your particular type soil.

Such soil conditioners should be used generously as this is the last chance to improve the soil. Gardeners may forget that flowerbeds get an annual renewal of humus material (or should), but once the lawn is planted, it's difficult to provide additional humus. Let your pocketbook be your guide in determining the amounts to use. In the long run you'll find it to be a good investment.

Once the seed bed has been prepared and the area has been leveled, the actual grass seed may be broadcast by hand or with a spreader. Care should be exercised to assure even coverage. Be sure, too, all the corners are covered. Rolling the seedbed lightly will insure firm contact between seed and soil, though this step is not absolutely necessary. The important thing -- after seeding and before rolling — is to apply a top dressing of peat moss or other topping material not more than one-quarter inch thick. This helps retain moisture and to hasten germination.

From this point on, it is a matter of keeping the seedbed moist at all times. One good drying out when the new lawn is sprouting will undo all the care taken to this point. Don't water with a heavy hand or the seed will be flushed out. Use a fine spray and do a thorough job with it.

INSTANT BOOKHELVES OF WOOD AND GLASS



A new way to make quickie bookshelves — with decorative appeal — is by stacking boards and glass blocks. This student built hers in a few minutes. To build a stack shelf, select straight, seasoned boards, preferably 1" x 8", either stained or unfinished. The block pattern used here, Intaglio from Pittsburgh Corning, is decorated in gray frit. The undecorated centers display a crinkled antique glass surface.

Square units are 8" x 8"; the rectangles are 4" x 8". All glass blocks are four inches thick.

Glass blocks can be used for random bookends, too. These 8-inch units are a good size for paperback bookends. Several other glass block patterns, says Pittsburgh Corning, come in 12-inch sizes, making good bookends for hardbound volumes.

CAN HELP CHANGE SHAPE OF ROOM

It is possible to change the shape of a room with a carefully designed floor or vinyl asbestos tile.

If a room in your home is long and narrow, install tile in wide stripes across the room, suggests The Better Floors Council. Visually it will then appear wider and more in proportion.

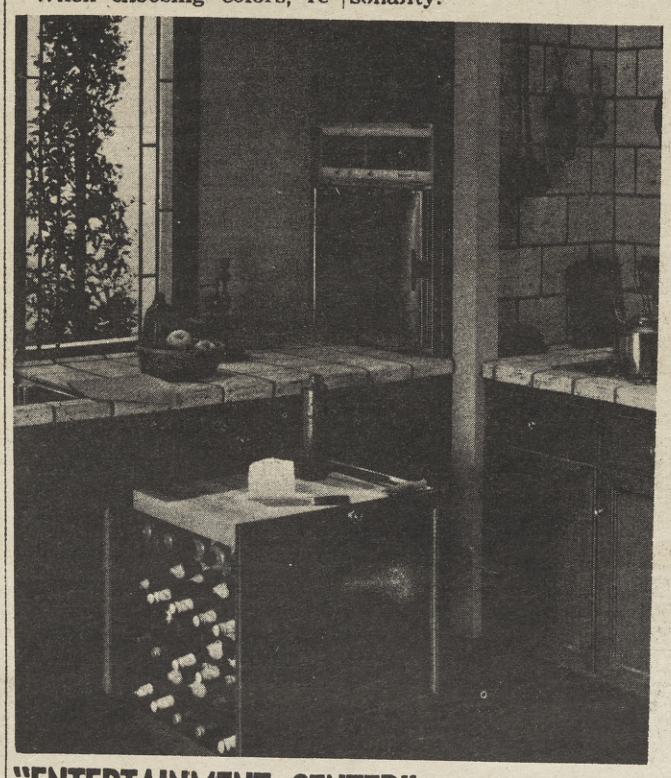
The stripes can be made any width you choose, just by changing the number of tile. For a small room, try stripes consisting of just one or two tile. Stripes of alternating widths are possible in larger rooms.

One way to determine what pattern will look best is to get some colored crayons or water colors and mark out the design on graph paper measured to the scale dimensions of the room.

When choosing colors, remember that the red, orange and yellow families will make a room seem warmer and the blue and green tones do just the opposite — make a warm room look cooler. If the room is dark, a bright vinyl asbestos tile will help it appear more cheerful.

Rooms with several furniture groupings can be visually separated into individual areas by selecting different color tile for specific parts of the room. For a room with a fireplace, try a large rectangle around the hearth of tile darker than the rest of the floor. Then place your furniture grouping within this darker area.

In a dining room you might find a new tile border just what's needed to set off the room and give it a new personality.



"ENTERTAINMENT CENTER" WILL MAKE YOU A GRACIOUS HOSTESS

One of the secrets of a successful hostess is that she obviously enjoys her own parties and takes pleasure in the company of her guests. This is possible only if the hostess is completely prepared. The woman who flutters around making more sandwiches or runs out of ice cubes or liquid refreshments makes her guests nervous and uncomfortable.

More and more families that do a lot of entertaining are now having "entertainment centers" installed, according to the Plumbing-Heating-Cooling Information Bureau. Sometimes this is in the kitchen, but more often it's in the family or recreation room.

The well-equipped entertainment center includes a double-bowl sink, hot and cold running water, an instant hot water dispenser that yields teakettle hot water, a built-in hot tray, automatic ice-maker and plumbed-in coffee maker.

If you're planning your own entertainment center, be sure to provide enough storage space beneath the counter for ice tongs, glasses, stirring sticks and other accessories, the Bureau notes.

Bulbs Now-- Some Later

Because the weather seems more like summer than it does fall, September is a month of indecision for the bulb gardener. Fall may sneak in early this month through much of the nation, but here in the Golden State it waits until summer has gone. The thermometer often reaches its peak in certain California climates this time of year, in fact.

Shold a gardener plant bulbs now or later under such circumstances? The answer is both now and later. Member of the California Association of Nurserymen suggest holding off until September's hottest days have surely passed for such bulbs as Daffodils, Tulips, and Hyacinths. Dutch Iris, on the other hand, seems less affected by the early planting and Ranunculus, Freesias, Ixia, and Sparaxis are so much the better for it.

Ranunculus bulbs come in a nice range of separate solid colors and may be obtained in mixed colors, as well. Massed for effect, these will not disappoint the California gardener. Ranunculus and Freesias both may be massed in drifts in a border where they can naturalize in future years. Freesias fill your early spring garden with pleasant perfume and a single bunch of them will fill your house, too.

Sparaxis and Ixias deserve a prominent place in the garden. In recent years each has become increasingly popular — and no wonder. Clump a dozen or more bulbs together in different groups and watch them multiply into a colorful display — further highlighted by the cup-shape or trumpets of the individual blooms. Both are ideal for cutting.

The delicate blue spikes of Grape Hyacinths (Muscari) are cherished by bulb-wise gardeners. As borders or edgings around the base of a tree they brighten spring in any garden. With these, and those mentioned above, start planting this month. Leave some room, though, for those bulbs that are better planted when fall has definietely arrived in California. The patience and planning will pay off in colorful results from late winter to late spring.

Central Air Conditioning Means Less Housework and Lower Household Expenses

Imagine your home without dust and dirt entering through open doors and windows. What a difference this would make in your housecleaning chores! Consider, too, how proper humidity would eliminate such nagging nuisances as mildew, stuck drawers, soggy cereals, wrinkled clothes, and musty odors. Fabrics throughout your home — clothing, drapes, linens, upholstery — last much longer in a total comfort environment. These are just some of the benefits that lighten the housecleaning load and reduce day-to-day household expenses. Meanwhile, a central air conditioning system will add considerable resale value to your home. Businessmen long ago discovered these advantages by installing central air conditioning, and thousands of homeowners are discovering them every day. They can be enjoyed by you, too, when you install total comfort conditioning.

- Less laundering and drycleaning
- Less dusting, sweeping, vacuuming
- Drapes, linens, furnishings last longer
- Lower expenses for screens, fans, deodorizers, cleaning materials, insect repellents, etc.
- Add value to your home

Central Air Conditioning Is Easy To Purchase

As air conditioning has become more popular and prevalent with San Diego County homeowners, it has become continually easier to arrange financing for this important home improvement. Banks, savings and loan associations, and other lending institutions provide 100% financing and allow up to five years for repayment in small monthly amounts. Often, an existing mortgage can be extended to include the cost of air conditioning. Your air conditioning contractor can assist you with arranging financing.

Less Expensive Than You Think

For specific information on the cost of adding air conditioning to your particular home, contact an air conditioning contractor for a free estimate. Meanwhile, as a guideline, you can anticipate installation costs of approximately 80c to $1.25 per square foot of area to be air conditioned. Whatever the cost, it will pay for itself in the comfort it provides and the value it will add to your home.

When To Consider Individual Room Air Conditioners

Room air conditioners (often referred to as window units) offer quick, less expensive way to provide cooling, but are generally limited to serving the one room in which they are installed. There are many fine products available.

Home Improvement Section

Choose and enjoy a bedroom with furnishings for use and you will never want to leave your private world. Bassett has solved the storage problems with a variety of clever and decorative units in the new Spanish style. They make your room so very personable plus give you roomy storage. Also, make room for projects . . especially sewing! This knee hole desk with its wood grain plastic top thrives with activity. And it is just the right height for so many projects and designed to meet "round the clock" needs. The chair is a particularly fine example of Spanish flair with its vinyl cushioned seat and back.

This luxury grouping from Bassett is available in Medium Brown Galleon or Burnished Red finish on Oak veneers and selected hardwoods. And it will convince you that space-savers are inspiring and give the master bedroom a cozy, homier, atmosphere. They may even help you become so organized in your day's routine, that you will make all your future clothes as well as presents.

Why not start with a surprise for someone special or even yourself? Purchase plain finger towels and sew decorative braids on the edges. Or "fun gifts" like party placemats and napkins. Choose festive patterns, cut to desired sizes and hem.

'WALK THRU' LAWN CHORES IN STYLE... WITH RENTED TOOLS

Lawn care chores on fall days are fun events when the lady of the house couples comfortable fashions with efficient, easy-to-handle equipment.

Slack suits in bright oranges and yellows and reds complement nature's fall switch in colors, while providing functional clothing for work around the yard.

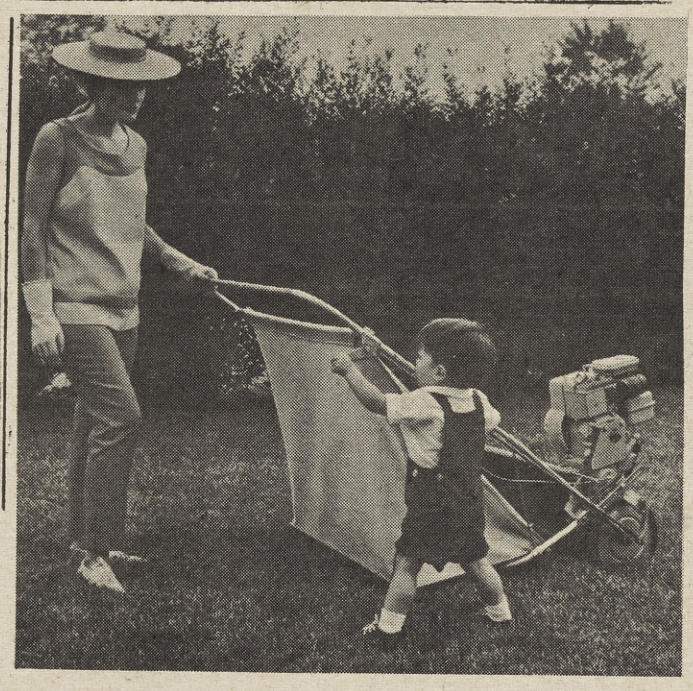
Professional-style lawn care equipment obtained from a rental center puts the distaff member of the household in the lawn care act while hubby attends to other heavier chores as putting in the storm windows.

Balmy fall days provide an opportunity to add to summer tans while cutting grass, removing thatch, adding fertilizer, or trimming hedges. Tunic tops provide warmth for sunny fall days while still permitting pleasant exposure for shoulders and arms.

The easy availability of equipment at reasonable rental rates makes the job easy and elimniates bulky storage problems later. One, A to Z Rental Center, offers tools for every yard job.

For example, the final thatch removal from the lawn usually takes place in the fall and this job is a breeze with a power lawn comber (average rental $6).

And there was a day when Mother was a child and fall leaves had to be manually raked and stuffed into bags for carting away and burning. Mostly this chore fell to Dad or the teen-age corps, when available.



FASHIONABLE YARD-WORKER AND SCENE STEALER . . . Mother finds lawn care pleasant work today with the help of professional-style tools obtained from a rental center. Many bulky items are hard to store in modern homes tight on storage space and, for instance, a power lawn sweeper (average rental $3) picks up fall leaves fast. Her work outfit is a comfortable bright orange and yellow slack suit complementing nature's fall colors. The functional tunic top provides opportunity for additional sunshine and deepening of the summer tan. Photo, courtesy A to Z Rental Center.
